FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

William (Bill) Perryman, Perryman Financial Advisory, Receives Prestigious 2008 Honor's Award from the Financial Planning Association – Dallas/Fort Worth Chapter

Dallas, Texas, (August 6, 2009) -- The Financial Planning Association – Dallas/Worth Chapter presented its 6th Annual 2008 Honor's Award to William (Bill) Perryman, CFP®, CPA, of Perryman Financial Advisory at a presentation and dinner held during National Financial Planning Week. This prestigious award honors an outstanding financial planner who has made significant contributions to the industry, and professes dedication and commitment to advancing the profession.

The Honor's Award recipient is nominated by the general membership and confirmed by the Financial Planning Week selection committee. Mr. Perryman was chosen based on his extensive contributions and leadership both in his industry and the community. Further, his lifelong commitment as a mentor to those in the financial planning profession is widely touted by his colleagues.

"Bill is a consummate professional and an outstanding individual on so many levels," said Gary Morris, president, Morris Capital and 2004 Honor's Award recipient. "He is truly dedicated to 'giving back' to both his profession and the community. Moreover, Bill possesses strong character, immeasurable integrity, and the highest ethical standards."

Mr. Perryman touts 36 years in the financial advisory industry. He was named by area financial professionals as one of the "Best Financial Planners in Dallas" in the December 2002, 2004, and 2006 issues of D Magazine.

The Financial Planning Association (FPA[®]) is the national leadership and advocacy organization representing the financial planning community. The mission of the Financial Planning Association of Dallas/Fort Worth is to foster excellence in the practice of financial planning and to promote the value of the CFP[®] designation.
